NOTES

- Item 1.* – Where a business is carried on under two or more business names, every such name must be given.
- Item 2.* – The nature of business should be given as clearly as possible. General words such as “shop” or “retail trade” are not sufficient.
- Item 3.* – The date required is the date when the business was begun under the business name or when the change occurred which makes registration necessary.
- It should be noted particularly that a Statement of Particulars can only be lodged after business is begun.
- Item 4.* – This should be as complete as possible, and should contain the Land Office reference number.
- Item 6.* – To be completed only if there are any branches operating under the business name.
- Item 7.* – When the proprietor or a partner is a corporation, the name if the corporation should be given in the first column, the country in which it was incorporated in the second column and the address of the registered office (or in the case of a foreign company, the name and address of the person authorized to accept service) in the sixth column; the other columns should be left blank.
- In the case of individuals, the age must be given in the fourth column; the words “full age” are not sufficient.
- Any person who has changed his name must give all former names, unless the change occurred before he attained the age of two years.
- Usual place of residence (in column 6) must show: locality, land office, plot and section number, or house number where applicable.
- Signature.* – The statement must be signed by the proprietor or by all partners as the case may be. A director or the secretary can sign for a corporation which is the proprietor or a partner. Where the statement is not signed by all partners, the Statutory Declaration printed alongside must be made before a Magistrate or Commissioner for Oaths, by one of the signatory partner .
